TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16th, 1862

Important Message.

To the Honorable Congress of the Argentine Nation.

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 13th '62

The acting President of the Nation has the honor to forward herewith the resolution adopted by the Provincial Legislature of Buenos Ayres relative to the law sanctioned by YY. HH. federalizing the whole territory of said province, subject to its consent.

The Prov. of Buenos Ayres, by means of its Legislature, has exercised its right in the manner deemed convenient, rejecting the said law submitted for its approval. It, consequently, becomes your duty to dictate whatever measure you think fittest, in order to give a legal residence to the National authorities, which must begin to function regularly for the fulfilment of the great work of national organization, and the union of Buenos Ayres with the rest of the Republic. To this end the National Executive reiterates its most strenuous assurance of efficacious support, and your honorable body, as well as the sister-provinces may confide in the active co-operation of the people of Buenos Ayres and its public authorities who are all interested in carrying out nationality as the only means of ensuring peace, constitutional order, public interests, and the cause of freedom, both now and in future, respecting which no doubt can, or does, exist.

God preserve YY. HH. many years

BARTOLOME MITRE.
JUAN A. GELLY Y OBES.

Editor's table.

The Finance Minister has at last resigned, and the Minister of Government resumed office. The new British River Plate Bank is formed in London: to-morrow we shall publish the prospectus. The Chascomus company has already more than half its shares subscribed for. The San Fernando railway has been baptised anew, and is henceforth known as the Buenos Ayres Northern railway. General Mitre has sent a note to Congress, respecting the rejection of the Capital bill, and in a day or two we will see what action will be taken in the matter.

The 'Nacion Argentina' is taking a tremendous run, and counts more than 1500 subscribers at present: the paper upon which it is printed is not of the best description, and many say that the French type tires the eye, and that English or American is preferable: however, our colleague has got a good start, and with a little care, will be the leading native paper in this city.

We have just received the intelligence that Messrs. James. Wootherspoon and Co. the well known confectioners have been awarded the Prize Medal at the Great Exhibition in London and the International Jury state in their report that this Medal has been awarded to them for "Purity and Excellence of Quality". The same firm was likewise successful in obtaining the Prize Medal at the Great Exhibition in London in 1851 and also at the "Exposition Universelle" at Paris in 1855; being the only medals awarded for English confectionery.

The Government, we understand, has agreed to subsidize Messrs Bernal and Carrega's steam line to Bahia Blanca, and the Municipality is about treating with certain parties, for constructing sewers in all the principal streets in town. Half a loaf is better than no bread: probably next year we will get the water project passed.

The Plaza Marte was deserted on last Sunday, and the musicians complained greatly that they were compelled to blow away for several hours, merely for the amusement of servant girls and old men.

The news from the camp is not of the most pleasing description. In the South the cattle are dying faster than they can be skinned, and neither grass nor water can be found in partidos which were once considered the best in the country.

Agli Italiani di Buenos Aires.

Abbiamo inteso che un articulo nostro sopra Garibaldi ha offeso gravemente ai suoi concittadini. Noi altri non avevamo altro oggetto che rispondere a la "Tribuna" alcune osservazioni, senza affiggere l' orgoglio nazionale di persona. Possiamo capire che certe parole sono state altamente dispiacevoli a coloro che l'hanno fatto tradurre, e certamente non le avesimo scritte se si avesse potuto prevedere che sarebbero insulto ai figli di quel paese dove abbiamo pasato molti anni felici. Le discriminazioni sopra gli uomini pubblici sono libere, ma quando queste portano un ingiurio nazionale non vogliamo la responsabilità, e preferiamo sotrarre l' articulo.

Fácciamo questa amende honorable ai nostri amici Italiani, come hanno ricevuto per loro stessi un articulo che giammai non avevame pensato diriggergli. Non possiamo dir niente a favore del generale Garibaldi ma vogliamo retirare le parole pirata, vagamundo, demagogo &c. e preghiamo che i suoi con cittadini considerino l' articulo menzionato, come se non si avesse scritto.

The Cordoba Railway.

For the information of European readers we publish this law recently passed for the above enterprise; our packet edition not having space, we have been obliged to hold it over for the supplemental mail. The reforms incidental to its passing through the Chambers have but slightly modified the original text. The terms, it will be seen, are very advantageous.

The Governor of Buenos Ayres, and Charge of the National Executive.

Bs. As. 5th September 1862.

WHEREAS.

The National Congress has sanctioned the following law:

The Senate and Chamber of Deputies of the Argentine Nation sanction with force of law.

Art. 1.—The National Executive is hereby authorised to conclude a contract for the construction of a railway from the city of Rosario to that of Cordoba, on the following terms:

1. The line shall extend from Rosario to Cordoba, in the direction approved by Government.

2. The line shall be solidly laid down, and in every respect efficient for the probable traffic.

3. Its total cost shall not exceed the sum of £ 6,000 per mile, and if by any circumstance it should pass that amount, Government will only recognise the above sum, in the liabilities dependent on this concession. In fixing the cost to be recognised, account will be taken only of the sums expended in works and materials, the lawful and ordinary commissions, and the interest on capital, during the construction of the road, at 6 per cent per annum on the sums invested.

4. The lands, requisite for the rail road, stations, and other necessary constructions, will be granted to the Co. by Government.

5. The materials, instruments and so forth, imported from abroad for the construction and exclusive use of the railway will be free of duty pending the term of guarantee. In like manner the property of the Co. shall be exempt from all taxation and impost, for the same period.

6 The mail-bags shall be carried gratis by the railway, and the troops materials or effects of Government at half the price fixed for the public.

7. The Government will guarantee to the enterprise, upon the actual outlay of the works as stipulated in Art 3., a minimum interest of 7 per cent per annum, on the understanding that Government is to be paid whatever sums so advanced, out of the future profits exceeding the 7 per cent guarantee.

8 The guarantee of 7 per cent shall begin to be effective, according as the several sections of the road shall be opened to public traffic, the cost thereof not exceeding the limit of £600 per mile.

9. In the liquidation of the guarantee stipulated, to be made up at the end of each year, it is understood that the only deductions from the gross receipts of the line, shall be, the lawful and necessary, expenses of the administration, the wear and tear of the line, station-houses and trains; not admitting, in any case, charges for interest of money advanced by the Co. or borrowed for investment in the railway, beyond the sum fixed in Art. 3

10. The works shall commence, at latest, within 18 months from the date of the concession, and in two years from such commencement at least 25 miles must be finished, or materials of equal value introduced into the country by the contractors. The rest to be concluded within three years later, unless in case of unforeseen accident or insurmountable obstacles clearly established, under penalty of annulment of the concession and failure of Government guarantee on the interest of the part of the road already concluded.

11. The term of guarantee shall be 40 years from the date of commencement, after which all liability on the part of Government shall cease, the lands remaining the perpetual property of the Co. The Government shall not admit any obligation to pay the guarantee during such time as the running of the line may be interrupted through the fault or negligence of the Co.

12. The Government shall have the right to interfere in the arrangement of tariffs, whenever the profits of the line shall exceed 12 per cent per annum.

13. The Co. shall have the right to lay down branches to the above line, in any direction, but without the obligation of a guarantee of interest on the part of Government

14. The Co. shall be obliged to continue the line to any other convenient terminus, and make branch-lines as designated by Government, whenever the latter shall give a guarantee of 7 per cent interest on the outlay.

15 The Government shall, at any time, have the right to buy up the line at its admitted cost, with a premium of 20 per cent for indemnization.

16. The Co. may be formed anonymously, with limited liability, provided its statutes be subject to the approval of Government, and its legal residence fixed necessarily in this Republic.

17. The Government shall have the necessary intervention in the acts of the Co. for the fulfilment of the stipulations hereinbefore expressed.

18. Whatever questions may arise between Government and the Co. shall be submitted to the decision of arbiters appointed by each, conformably with the laws of the country

19. The Government, on granting the concession, shall require a pecuniary deposit sufficient to ensure the fulfilment of the contract.

Art. II Let this be communicated to the Executive.

Given in the session-hall of the Argentine Congress in Buenos Aires on the 2nd day of September, anno domini 1862.

Marcos Paz—Carlos M. Saravia
Secretary of Senate.
Pastor Obligado—Bernabe Quintana,

The above is hereby declared law of the Republic, to take effect as such; let it be published, and inserted in the National Register.

We are well pleased to see the editors of the Diario devoting their attention to the introduction of new branches of trade in that locality. After advocating zealously the cotton-planting efforts of the 'Standard,' they give data on cochineal-growing, and now publish some interesting articles on honey

The [illegible] and [illegible] of Santa Fé life—robbing, killing, etc—continued with the same zest. The last news we hear is that of the abduction of a girl, and the capture of ten robbers

The Diario complains that 17 vagabonds had been drafted into the 2d of the line, saying that it is unconstitutional. We think otherwise, for we are beginning to perceive that 'too much constitution' menaces seriously to injure the tranquillity of the country

At last we have a result of the San Juan silver mines: a remittance of oro to Cordoba has been paid, as follows: 305 arrobes, 15 pounds produced 166 marks, 3 ounces pure metal, sold at 10 1/2 dollars per mark, which gave a net proceed of 1566 dollars

Owing to the imperfect process of purification employed in Cordova, the result has not been as satisfactory as otherwise; still, it is fully remunerative

The ten thieves lately taken had no other dress on but ponchos made of the hides of the animals stolen; this will give our readers a fair idea of the poverty of the Santa Fé camp

The Government of Mendoza found itself in great difficulties to account for a sum of 40,000 dollars, illegally spent from the national finances: the charges account presented offers very curious statistics

A public loan of 150,000 dollars had been advertised to be raised in the province of Santa Fé; although we do not think it probable that the whole amount will be raised there.

Cotton-planting was increasing, and one estanciero had contracted for the sowing of 50,000 trees; another in Corrientes had sown already 30,000. We trust and hope that, at this rate, the River Plate may soon become an exporting region for this article, appropriately called superior to gold.

The 3rd of the line, which had suffered so much in the Rioja campaign, arrived in Rosario, en route for the Azul

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

Garibaldi's Movements.

A letter from Rome of the 1st inst says:—

At first no one at Rome would give credit to the news of Garibaldi's intended attempt, but repeated dispatches and the most precise information at last compelled the French authorities to pay attention to it. Assistance was immediately demanded from the Emperor's Government, and a squadron of 6 French line-of-battle ships soon appeared off Civita Vecchia. Every military precaution was adopted in the fear of an attack, and a movement of concentration took place. All the commandants of the Italian troops on the Tuscan frontier—at Grosseto, Talamone, &c, were warned to actively watch the movements of the Garibaldian bands; and lastly, in order to reoccupy all the chief points which had been left without garrisons, in consequence of the concentration of troops, reinforcements were applied for from France. The Papal Government represented that in the present state of agitation the places abandoned by the French troops might become the scenes of disturbance and manifestations, but the answer was that in case of an attack against the Pontifical frontier, Garibaldi would not have a less force than from 12,000 to 15,000 volunteers, and that the French companies isolated as they were, would be unable to defend themselves against so large a force. The French authorities therefore thought it their duty to give a simple piece of advice to the Pontifical Government, and pointed out to it the danger which the Papal soldiers might incur if sent to the extreme frontier to repel the first efforts of the enemy. That advice, however, was disregarded, and the Papal Zouaves are to occupy Ceprano, near Frosinone.

The Italian journals publish contradictory telegrams about Garibaldi's movements, some seeming to confirm the intelligence of his resolution not to abandon his plans; and others, on the contrary, announcing his arrival at Palermo. The troops that have been sent against him to Corleone proceeded slowly on their march, in order to give the volunteers time to disband of their own accord.

The garrisons of Naples and Sicily have each been augmented by a division of soldiers, in order that they may not be taken unprepared. An exchange of shots took place between the Italian troops and the Pontifical Zouaves as the latter were retiring from Alatri, on the frontier. Several Hungarians of the legion Nocera have revolted, and shut themselves up in the fort of Criminia, insisting upon joining Garibaldi

A letter from Rome of August 2, says that the French military authorities there seriously believed in the probability of an attack by Garibaldi, and had made serious preparations to meet it. They are described as being very much in the dark as to the force at Garibaldi's disposal, but they have reason to believe that the first attempt would be made by a corps of 3,000 Garibaldians from Naples, who would sail under American colours, and the French vessels Descartes and Gomer had received orders to look out for and "sink them!" It was thought that Garibaldi had several ships under his orders.

Private Circular for the River Plate Mail.

Liverpool, the 7th August 1862.

Since our last of the 7th ulto. 508 bales Buenos Aires and Montevideo have arrived at this port.

At our recent public sales here on the 24th and 25th ulto. 2548 bales River Plate Wool were brought forward, but with the exception of such lots as could be got at prices to admit them at the minimum duty in the States, and of which there was very little,—they were all withdrawn for want of competition by the Home trade. A few Cordovas sold at 10½d to 10⅞d and of this class large sales are reported to have been made "to arrive" c 10½.

The low prices of Cape and other Colonial wools that have been prevailing for some time and still continue at the London sales now in progress, exercise a depressing influence on the value of River Plate wools.

Of the 7500 bales at the Havre sales about 2000 bales only found buyers at prices rather below the Antwerp sale-rates the depression being greatest on the finer kinds, whilst the lower ones realized fully late rates.

SHEEPSKINS—there have been several arrivals, but the ideas of the Importers are too high for the present demand.

Septembre 16--1862.

Ce que l'Opposition a gagné.

Nous avons assisté á trois mois de luttes parlementaires, qui au début ont pris un caractére d'importance de nature á nous laisser concevoir les plus hautes espérances sur leur résultat. Une ére de paix et de concorde semblait s'ouvrir pour la République Argentine et étre le súr garant de sa future prospérité. Dieu merci, nous n'avons pas été entiérement trompés dans notre attente car les luttes que les partis se sont livrés ne se sont passées que sur le terrain parlementaire mais si un reste du levain des passions á demi éteintes n'a pu triompher du bon sens des masses, l'esprit d'opposition aux grandes idées du pr grès et de l'organisation de la nation a trouvé le moyen de mettre des entraves á tous les projets qu'un sentiment de patriotisme et d'ordre a mis en avant.

Si l'on juge les hommes par leurs actions á plus forte raison doit on soumettre les partis á la méme épreuve, et nous croyons que l'opposition n'aurait pas á se feliciter de l'opinion que l'examen de ses actes ferait naître. A quoi ont abouti tous les efforts d'un parti qui ne veut défendre d'autres intérêts que ceux qui se débattent autour de son clocher, sinon á saper par la base tous les plans de constitution de la nation? En récapitulant les résultats de la campagne parlementaire qui vient d'avoir lieu, nous ne trouvons pour trophées que le rejet de lois qui ont eu pour but la consolidation des finances et la centralisation du pouvoir, le refus de fixer la Capitale de la Confédération et la démission des ministres les plus capables, obligés de se retirer devant l'hostilité d'adversaires, que méme le salut de la patrie commune ne peut fléchir. L'on dit encore que l'opposition dont l'existence a été, si nous nous en souvenons, niée par le journal qui en est maintenant l'organe, aurait encore obtenu une plus triste victoire, et que son triomphe serait complet; mais nous esperons pour elle comme pour nous que ce bruit est faux et que le pays évitera l'abyme de maux dans lequel le précipiterait un résultat aussi funeste.

Voilá ce que l'opposition a gagné, le Peuple peut juger si ses intérets ont été écoutés autant que les passions du parti qui prétend les défendre.

Los Français au Mexique

Si le doute était permis sur le succés qui doit couronner les efforts de nos soldats au Mexique, les derniéres nouvelles sont de nature a le dissiper complétement. Nous apprenons que les communications de l'armée Française sont ouvertes avec Vera-Cruz et que les Mexicains ont été battus á Orizaba de telle façon qu'ils ont du se retirer hors de la portée de nos armes victorieuses, Ortega vaincu par Lorencez est impuissant pour arréter la marche de nos troupes sur la ville de Mejico et tout porte á croire que puisque une poignée d'hommes a su déjouer les projets des généraux mexicains, aucune résistance sérieuse ne viendra empécher le général Forey d'occuper tous les points importans de la République. Il est donc prudent de ne pas préter une oreille trop complaisante á tous les bruits absurdes qui ont couru sur la retraite des Français et leur rembarquement; il convient mieux d'accepter les faits tels qu'il sont et d'en tirer les conséquences logiques.

Les amis des Mexicains ont essayé avec une mauvaise foi, que l'absurdité des intentions atribuées par eux a la France a mis en évidence, de représenter l'expédition sous un jour entiérement faux et de transporter la question sur un terrain qui n'a aucun raport avec son origine réelle. Quelques observations, fruits du plus simple bon sens et dégagées de tout sentiment d'hostilité systématique serviront á remettre nos adversaires dans le bon chemin et á leur faire éviter les suppositions erronées dans lesquelles ils ont été induits par un manque de réflexion.

Le systéme suivi par l'empereur Napoléon, depuis son avénement au pouvoir, a toujours tendu dans sa politique extérieure surtout, á faire respecter le drapeau français sur tous les points du globe; et s'il est en France un nombreux parti qui lui reproche son origine, il n'y a qu'une seule voix pour l'appuyer lorsqu'il s'agit de l'honneur du pays. Toute la puissance du Gouvernement imperial repose sur l'éclat qu'il sait jeter sur la France et sur le respect que son énergie et sa vigilance au dehors attirent sur elle. Voilá le point de départ de la résolution prise par le cabinet des Tuilleries de demander une réparation des outrages inouis, que nos compatriotes ont souffert au Mexique qui, trompée par la longanimité et la modération, nous dirons criminelle, des Gouvernements précédents, se pose en victime devant le nouveau Monde. Mais ce role du loup qui se vante de sa douceur, est hors de saison et une bonne convention signée á Mexico, appuyée de nos bayonnettes et assurée par des garanties sérieuses mettra au néant toutes les fables de monarchie imposée et de conquéte réalisée. Le jour oú ce point aura été gagné n'est pas éloigné et il sera alors prouvé que la distance, quelque grande qu'elle soit n'est pas un garant de l'impunité, quand l'honneur du pavillon et la protection des citoyens français est en jeu.

Chronique Politique.

Que va faire Garibaldi? Telle est la question que chacun s'adresse, telle est la préoccupation génerale dans toute l'Europe méridionale. Jusqu'á présent méme en Italie, on ne sait rien de positif, et les correspondans sérieux des journaux français á Turin, Naples et á Rome avouent trés carrément qu'il n'ont pas de données plus positives á cet égard que l'on n'en a dans Paris méme, ce qui se comprend parfaitement, d'ailleurs, puisque les seule sources authensiques de renseignemens sont les proclamations de Garibaldi, dont les termes semblent calculés, si l'on veut bien les peser avec soin, pour donner lieu aux plus diverses interprétations.

Ainsi, la proclamation que nous apportait hier le télégraphe indique bien que l'ex-dictateur s'adresse á une armée préte á entrer en campagne. Le but de cette campagne est meme désigné jusqu'á un certain point: "combattre les étrangers et unifier l'Italie:" mais ce qui n'est pas dit, c'est sur quel endroit les troupes devront se porter, et l'on remarque méme que dans la proclamation, le général insiste surtout sur le nécessité du mystére et de l'obéissance discréte. Le ton de cette proclamation est relativement modéré, du reste, et il n'y est question explicitement ni de Rome, ni la France.

D'autre part, l'Unita Italiana, de Milan, publie la réponse faite par Garibaldi á la société universitaire de Naples, qui lui avait envoyé une Adrese:

"Oui, j'irai parmi vous jeunes gens qui représentez les espérances les plus chéres et les plus certaines de la patrie. Que le mauvais gouvernement, en me tant á une dure éprouve votre constance et votre fidélité au principe unitaire, soit une exe tation pour vous ames générúses á se préparer aux derniéres batailles de la liberté. Je suis avec vous, et que le devoir nous appelle á combattre pour obtenir ce qui est a nous, ce que des usurpateurs étrangers nous contestent: Rome et Venise; je serai fier de vous guider á la bataille et á la victoire."

Lá encore, il n'est pas question d'une attaque contre les Français á Rome. Enfin, le document le plus explicite est celui qui a été répandu dans Rome, mais sans que rien indique qu'il émane de Garibaldi; en voici le texe tel qu'il est transmis au Siécle.

"Fréres,

"Un pareil état de choses ne peut durer; encore quelque nouvelles faillites comme celles qui viennent de frapper le commerce, et la population romaine sera réduite á la derniére extrémité,

"Le moment d'agir est venu. Qu'un mot d'ordre vous reunisse tous au forum, sur la place du Peuple, le long de vos antique voies sacrées, et lá, puisque vous ne pouvez manifester votre volonté par suffrages, prononcez-vous par des acclamations qui retentiront dans toute l'Europe.

"Si vous étes chargés par les soldats pontificaux, résistez jusqu'á la mort; si les Français interviennent, retirez-vous' et que votre martyre, comme celui de la Pologne, frappe et étonne le monde!

"Oui, fréres, desormais il faut d'imposantes démonstrations. Les plus imposantes sont les plus désirables, y compris celle qui vous réunira tous, indignés et impassibles, sur le silencieux Aventin, d'oú nos pére, par leur actitude, ont fait trembler les ministres de la tyrannie."

Il s'agit la d'acclamations de résistance, de martyre, mais non le violence active d'agression. Il y a donc lieu d'espérer encore que Garibaldi ne commettra pas la faute d'attaquer nos troupes á Rome, et que les destinées de l'Italie ne seront pas compromises.

Au surplus, le gouvernement italien semble sur de dominer toute éventualité, s'il faut en croire les déclarations de M. Rattazzi au Sénat de Turin: le président du Conseil, répondant á une interpellation, s'est borné á dire que le gouvernement fait tous ses efforts pour empécher les enrólemens; qu'ils est résolu á prévenir les expéditions dont on parle depuis quelques jours et "qu'il a pris les mesures nécessaires."

Mais, objectera t-on, il est un fait certain, c'est que Garibaldi prépare une expédition, c'est que les enrólés arrivent á son appel, sans savoir eux-mémes le but précis de l'entreprise, sur la foi de l'illustre patriote. Si ce n'est pas Rome qui est menacée, qu'est-ce donc!

Peut-étre doit on chercher le mot de l'énigme dans une autre proclamation que nous publions plus bas, et oú se trouve cette phrase caractéristique: "Fréres Slaves.....c'est le devoir des peuples libres et de ceux qui veulent l'étre d'accourir partout oú l'on combat pour le droit des nations, partout oú est arboré le drapeau de la liberté....Moi, au nom de l'Italie, je vous offre aide et amitié fraternelle."

S'il est réellement dans le plan de Garibaldi de provoquer un movement en Orient, on conçoit qu'il ait eu la tactique de préparer une diversion du cóté de Rome, en agitant les esprits dans cette direction.

En effet, les lettres de Rome qui nous rapportent les bruits répandus ces jours derniers, disent que le gouvernement français allait envoyer de nouvelles troupes pour couvrir les Etats romains contre toute agression, et on assurait que deux batteries d'artillerie avaient été debarqueés á Civita-Vecchia. Ce qui est moins incertain, c'est qu'il est sorti quelques piéces de Rome, allant on ne dit pas oú, sans doute dans la direction du litteral.

LES MISERABLES.

PAR

respiration et du soleil. Il était un vivant Maintenant, que s'est il donc passé! Il a glissé, il est tombé, c'est fini.

Il est dans l'eau monstrueuse. Il n'a plus sous les pieds que de la fuite et de l'écroulement. Les flots déchirés et déchiquetés par le vent l'environnent, hideusement les roulis de l'abime l'emportent, tous les haillons de l'eau s'agitent autour de sa téte, une populace de vagues crache sur lui de confuses ouvertures le dévorent á demi; chaque fois qu'il enfonce, il entrevoit des précipices pleins de nuit; d'affreuses végétations inconnues le saisissent, lui nouent les pieds le tirent a elles; il sent qu'il devient abime, il fait partie de l'écume, les flots se le jettent de l'un a l'autre, il boit l'amertume, L'océan lache s'acharne á le noyer, l'enormité joue avec son agonie, Il semble que toute cette eau soit de la haine.

Il lutte pourtant.

Il essaie de se défendre, il essaie de se soutenir, il fait effort, il nage. Lui, cette pauvre force tout de suit epuisée, il combat l'inépuisable.

Oú donc est le navire? La-bas A peine visible dans les páles ténébres de l'horizon.

Les rafales soufflent; toutes les écumes l'accablent Il léve les yeux et ne voit que les lividités des nuages. Il assiste, agonisant, á l'immense démence de la mer. Il est suplicié par cette folie. Il entend des bruits étrangers á l'homme qui semblent venir d'au dela de la terre et d'on ne sait quel dehors effrayant.

Il y a des oiseaux dans les nuees, de méme qu'il y a des anges au dessus des détresses humaines, mais que peuvent ils pour lui? Cela vole, chante et plane, et lui, il rale.

Il se sent enseveli á la fois par ces deux infinis, l'ocean et le ciel, l'un est une tombe, l'autre est un linceul.

La nuit descend, voilá des heures qu'il nage, ses forces sont á bout; ce navire, cette chose lointaine oú il y avait des hommes s'est effacée, il est seul dans le formidable gouffre crépusculaire, il enfonce, il se tord, il sent au dessous de lui les vagues monstres de l'invisible; il appelle.

Il n'y a plus d'hommes Oú est Dieu?

Il appelle, Quelqu'un! quelqu'un! Il appelle toujours.

Rien á l'horizon. Rien au ciel.

Il implore l'etendue, la vague, l'algue, écueil; cela est sourd. Il supplie la tempéte; la tempéte imperturbable n'obeit qu'a l'infini.

Autour de lui l'obscurité, la brume, la solitude, le tumulte orageux et inconscient, le plissement indéfini des eaux farouches. En lui l'horreur et la fatigue Sous lui la chute, Pas de point d'appui. Il aux aventures ténébreuses du cadavre dans l'ombre illimitée. Le froid sans fond le paralyse Ses mains se crispent et se ferment et prennent du neant Vents, nuées, tourbillons, souffles, etoiles inutiles! Que faire! Le désespere s'abandonne, qui est las prend le parti de mourir, il se laisse faire, il se laisse aller, il láche prise, et la voila qui roule a jamais dans les profondeurs lugubres de l'engloutissement.

O marche implacable des sociétés humaines! Pertes d'hommes et d'ames chemin faisant! Océan oú tombe tout ce que laisse tomber la loi! disparition sinistre du secours! O mort morale!

La mer, c'est l'inexorable nuit sociale ou la pénalité jette ses damnés La mer, c'est l'immense misére

L'ame, á van l'eau dans ce gouffre peut devenir un cadavre. Qui la ressuscitera!

AVIS EXTRAORDINAIRE.

Ouverture du Grand,

Emporium de Lumiére de La PLATA.

No. 59 calle de la Florida.

Le soussigné a l'honneur d'informer les habitans de Buenos Ayres et de la Republique Argentine qu'il vient de compléter toutes ses dispositions, et qu'il a procedé á l'ouverture publique de l'établissement ci-dessus mentionné, le 11 mai, avec un immense assortiment de la célébre huile de Kerosene, et un fonds de Lampe de Kerosene expressément importées d'Europe et de l'Amérique du Nord pour ce marché et qui par leur

Variété,
leur Elégance
et leur Fini

n'ont pas d'égales sur terre. Toutes ces superbes lampes seront vendues á des prix modérés. Le soussigné fait encore observer au public les nombreux avantages de cet admirable mode d'éclairage sur tous les autres. L'Huile de Kerosene, étant un pur extrait de charbon bitumineux, contient toutes les propriétés du gaz, et produit une lumiére pure et blanche qui surpasse le gaz méme en beauté. La douceur et la pureté de cette huile en font une des lumiéres le plus propres á ménager la vue, tandis qu'elle ne coûte que la moitié du gaz et est beaucoup plus économique que la chandelle méme.

L'Huile de Kerosene est modore, ne salit pas et peut s'employer avec la plus grande sécurité, et les Lampes sont d'une construction si simple qu'elles ne peuvent se déranger. La supériorité incontestable de l'Huile de Kerosene sur tous les autres moyens d'éclairage artificiel, ayant été établie dans toute l'Europe et l'Amérique du Nord, (oú elle a obtenu une faveur non encore égalée dans l'histoire des inventions), cette huile est offerte au public comme le meilleur agent d'éclairage qui ait encore été employé.

Tout le monde indistinctement est invité á venir voir cette lumiére et á juger par soi; le soir étant le meilleur moment pour cela.
